City Boards, Committees and Commissions

Residents are welcome to attend all city meetings. Regularly scheduled meetings and times are posted at City Hall at least 72 hours prior to the meeting. All positions on the City of Crowley boards, committees and commissions are voluntary. Residents may apply to serve in any capacity, and all positions have two-year terms. Applications and information regarding meeting times may be obtained through the City Secretary's Office by calling (817) 297-2201 ext. 4000.

Applications are reviewed, interviews are conducted, recommendations are made and final approval of appointments are made by the City Council. Residents may serve on more than one board, committee or commission. Meetings times, locations and opportunities to serve are listed in the next section.
