

Mission

The Crowley Public Library's mission is to serve the community by offering media services, resources, programs, and facilities that fulfill the informational, educational, and cultural needs and interests of the community. The Crowley Public Library promotes the open exchange of ideas through free access to information and connects a culturally diverse population with the global community.

The Crowley Public Library collaborates with various departments within the city and local organizations to improve the quality of life of Crowley residents. As a dynamic and progressive institution, the Crowley Public Library continually adds new collections and services and adapts existing programs as the community changes and as new technologies develop.
