FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 1, 2021

Get FEMA Application Help at the Crowley Public Library on March 9

CROWLEY, Texas — If your home sustained damage from winter storm Uri, you may be eligible for federal disaster assistance.

By appointment, the computer lab at the Crowley Public Library will be available for FEMA applications on March 9, from 1-5 p.m. Call the CPL at 817-297-6707 to schedule your appointment.

Staff from the Library and the Crowley House of Hope will be on-site to provide technical assistance and support.

Visit disasterassistance.gov for information about documents you will need to bring to complete your registration and application.
